THE PROPERTY & THE NUMBERS

A lodge on the hill, an amphitheater on the lawn, and Southern Illinois acreage to build a business on.

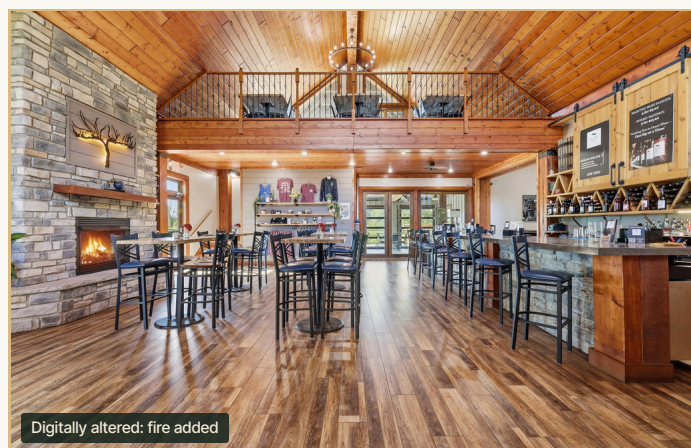

Built in 2009 as a destination for gathering, 8595 US Highway 51 pairs a timber-and-stone great hall and a working commercial kitchen with something rarer: a terraced lawn that steps down to a covered stage above a pond. Every figure here carries its source and date, and open items are shown as open.

SIX HIGHLIGHTS

- 01 A lodge built for gatherings
A 40'9" × 30'5" great hall under a cathedral pine ceiling, ringed by an iron-railed loft, with a stone fireplace at one end and a stone-fronted bar at the other.
- 02 An amphitheater cut into the hill
Mown terraces step from the decks down to a covered stage, with the pond as the backdrop.
- 03 A working commercial kitchen
Hood line with range and convection ovens, refrigerated prep, three-compartment sinks, commercial dishwasher and a walk-in cooler — the infrastructure every food-led concept needs on day one.
- 04 A wall that opens
The 468 sq ft enclosed porch has glass overhead doors along two sides. Down, it is a three-season room; up, it is part of the deck.
- 05 Three levels of outdoor room
Covered upper deck, wraparound main deck and a lower paver patio with fire pit and pergola, all facing the lawn and water.
- 06 Highway frontage, rural setting
Direct access from US 51 (5,800 vehicles a day, IDOT 2025) on acreage inside the Shawnee Hills, with Giant City State Park and the wine trail as neighbors.
